

Big Bad Wolf in Hospital

The Big Bad Wolf must stop huffing and puffing. He needs to rest. The doctors will keep him in the hospital.

Paul Pig's brick house was too much for Wolf. He huffed and puffed all day. He just could not blow it down. Now he will be in the hospital for a week.

Pigs all over the land have gone out to buy bricks. Most stores have run out.

“It was too easy for Wolf to blow down my brothers' houses,” said Paul Pig. “The days of straw and sticks are over. If Wolf visits any pig in this land, he will need more than a huff and a puff!”
