Standards Correlation for Photographic Learning Cards—Nouns: Children's Clothing

This product supports the NCTE/IRA Standards for the English Language Arts and the recommended teaching practices outlined in the NAEYC/IRA position statement Learning to Read and Write: Developmentally Appropriate Practices for Young Children.

NCTE/IRA Standards for the English Language Arts

This product supports the following standards:

- 1. Students read many different types of print and nonprint texts for a variety of purposes. This set contains 45 nonprint texts—photographs of children's clothing—for students to read and discuss.
- 2. Students use a variety of strategies to build meaning while reading. The images and activities in Nouns: Children's Clothing help build a strong vocabulary and help build the expressive and receptive language skills that form the foundation for effective reading.
- 3. Students communicate in spoken, written, and visual form, for a variety of purposes and a variety of audiences. Students build their verbal communication skills as they describe and discuss the photographs in this set.
- 4. Students whose first language is not English use their first language to learn English and to understand content in all curriculum areas. This set is ideal for use with English language learners as the images can be used to build vocabulary both in their first language and in English. In addition, all picture descriptions and activity instructions are available in English, Spanish, and French.
- 5. Students become participating members of a variety of literacy communities. Discussing the photographs and doing the accompanying activities in this set help teachers build classroom literacy communities.

NAEYC/IRA Position Statement Learning to Read and Write:
Developmentally Appropriate Practices for Young Children

This product supports the following recommended teaching practices for preschool students:

- 1. Adults create positive relationships with children by talking with them, modeling reading and writing, and building children's interest in reading and writing. The activities included in this set promote conversations between teachers and students and help build young students' interest in reading by including familiar items of clothing.
- 2. Teachers provide experiences and materials that help children expand their vocabularies. Nouns: Children's Clothing builds vocabulary by encouraging students to use a variety of words while discussing the photographs.

This product supports the following recommended teaching practices for kindergarten and primary grades students:

- 1. Teachers provide opportunities for children to work in small groups. Several of the activities in Nouns: Children's Clothing are designed for small groups.
- 2. Teachers provide challenging instruction that expands children's knowledge of their world and expands their vocabularies. Nouns: Children's Clothing builds vocabulary by encouraging students to use a variety of words while discussing the photographs.
